

	Priority Boarding	Pram/Buggy to gate - free	Travel Cots	Bassinets	Infant hold baggage allowance	Infant Cabin baggage allowance	Child in-flight meals	Min Infant Age	Website	Extra info	Car seats in cabin	Travelling when pregnant
Aer Lingus		Yes	Yes – as part of adult 20kg check-in baggage (prepaid). If no other bags -travel cot €15 each way		10kg hold baggage for long haul flights	None on shorthaul, 10kgs long haul	Available on request on US flights	Drs note required for newborns up to 2 wks (and up to 6 months for premature babies)	aerlingus.com		Forward facing 5 point harness only, for children between 6 and 24 months in cabin, when extra seat is purchased	Up to 32 wks between Ireland and UK with doctors permission, 32-26 wks with 'expectant mother travel advice form' completed by doctor. Other routes: up to 28 wks with doctors permission, 28-33 wks with 'expectant mother travel advice form'.
Thomas Cook Airlines	Seats are assigned	Yes	Free	Not available	10kg hold baggage (thomas cook flights only)	Up to 10kgs for bottles & sterilisers (for small charge) - check on 0844 855 0515 before flying.	£3 - £4.50 depending on length of flight		thomascook.com	Contact the specific airlines for individual regulations on infant allowances, etc.
BMI	Yes			For babies up to 10kg (72cm) for all flights except UK domestic, W Europe and Moscow	10kg hold baggage	None but adult can take 1 piece 55x40x23cm plus personal item - can be baby bag (at BMIs discretion (note any airport one bag restriction will override BMI policy)	Available to pre-order (in funbox with puzzles) for flights to Eastern European, Middle East, Africa, Asia and Saudia Arabia	7 days.	flybmi.com	Onboard bottle warming and (limited supplies of) infant packs of nappies & wipes on all flights except UK domestic, Western Europe & Moscow. You can ask staff to bring buggy to aircraft if you stay last on board the plane.	Forward facing 5 point harness only, for children between 6 and 36 months when extra seat is purchased
BMI baby		Yes (for infant or child under 5)	£10 per item per one way flight (add during booking)		5kg (added to adult allowance)	None					In hold for £10 per item per one way flight (add when booking)	Up to 36 wks (30–36) wks requires drs cert. Notify bmibaby call centre - 0905 8282828 before travel.
Easyjet	Yes	Yes	Free	Not available	None	None	No specific meals for kids		Easyjet.co.uk	You can take baby milk on board. Attendants are happy to provide hot water to heat food and milk	Rigid framed 5 point harness for children between six months & 3 years

British Airways	Yes	Yes		Infant seats available for infants up to 13kg		One standard sized bag for items needed by infant during the flight.	Preorder. 'feed kids first' policy. Onboard bottle & baby food warming on long haul flights. Sealed jars only.		ba.com	for passengers travelling with young children, the seat allocation process opens 3 days before departure (it is 24 hours for others).	In hold for free. In cabin for infant from 6 months - 3 years. Or AmSafe System for child between 12 mths and 4 yrs.
Continental Airlines		Yes. Can go in cabin if space permits. (buggy or carseat only)	On select flights for infants up to 10kg		Either a pushchair or car seat + one other item together weighing no more than 23kg	Change bag (or small pushchair or child seat)	Take infant food with you. You can request hot water or ice from the attendant to keep items hot or cold	7 days.	continental.com/uk		Must be FAA approved. (only one of either a pushchair or car seat is free)	Accepted at any stage, doctor's certificate required within 7 days of anticipated delivery
Flybe	Seats can be prebooked for £6 per flight	Yes						7 days (premature babies must be 7 days old from due date)			For children from 6 months to 2 years 364 days. Can go in hold for infants and children for free
KLM		Yes - can go in cabin if space permits.		On inter-continental flights for babies less than 65cm in length and less than 10kg	10kg	One bag no more than 10kg, measuring no more than 55 x 35 x 25cm	Can be ordered in advance for intercontinental flights		klm.com	Intercontinental flights operate the 'junior jet service' including play packages and various items for babies.	EU approved seats in separate (paid for) seat
Monarch	Seats can be prebooked		Can be carried in hold as part of 10kg baggage allowance (on payment of bag fee)		10kg allowance (subject to payment of baggage charges)		None for infants. Crew can provide hot water for heating bottles and jars	7 days (mothers cannot fly until 14 days after giving birth)		Chairs for disabled children (Travelchair for children 1-9 yrs or Support harness for 10 yrs+) available on request from customer services dept free of charge.	Can be taken into the cabin, if forward facing with 5 point harness and for infant from 6 months - 3 years.
Qantas	Yes whenever possible	Yes		Request at time of reservation for infants up to 6 months old	10kg on most international flights – see website for restrictions	Infant food, milk, nappies for use inflight	Special child, toddler & baby meals. Order when booking. If infant has allergies or special diet, you must provide meals. Soft	Doctors note required for babies less than 7 days old or those not in good health	qantas.com.au	Limited baby food & nappies available. Staff will prepare, heat and wash bottles and dummies on request. Complementary kids kits provided for entertainin children.	Must be pre-approved at least 24 hours before departure. Contact local qantas office to book seat and get pre-approval	Travel without medical clearance up to 36 wks (or up to 32 wks for multiple pregnancies). Medical clearance required for pregnancies with complications drinks & juice available for children.

Qatar				Request at time of reservation					qatarairways.com
Ryanair	Can be purchased	Yes	For a fee (at 5 March 2010 this was £10 per infant item per way)		None - see individual items for fees	None	No specific meals.	8 days. (mothers cannot fly until after 48 hours after birth for normal birth, or 10 days after caesarean and only with doctors approval).	ryanair.com	Crelling model 27 harness and Crelling HSB1 Shoulder Brace can be used for children with disabilities but you need to contact the Ryanair Special Assistance Line.	Not in cabin. Car Seats can be taken in hold if 'infant equipment fee' is paid. (all items must be less than 20kg)	No travel beyond 36 wks of uncomplicated single pregnancy or 32 wks of an uncomplicated multiple pregnancy. Over 28 wks 'fit to fly' letter required from doctor.
Singapore Airlines	Seats can be requested Infant tickets are assigned bulkhead seats (front row of cabin) with bassinet	Yes		Max weight 14kg. Request on booking.	10kg hold baggage	infant food, nappies and bottles not exceeding 6kg (or 12kg together with a carrycot).	Child meals available on most flights. Request on booking. Nappies, bibs, bottles and wipes available on board on request.	Doctors note required between 48 hours and 7 days though flight not recommended by Singapore Airlines until after 7 days.	singaporeair.com	Contact local office if travelling alone with two infants.	Children btwn 6 months and under 3 years. FAA approved harnesses are accepted but don't fit all first and bus class seats.	up to 36 wks for uncomplicated single pregnancies ad up to 32 wks for uncomplicated multiple pregnancies. All pregnant mothers require fit to travel letter from doctors.
United airlines		Yes - in hold. Can request it is delivered to aircraft door on arrival.		For babies up to 6 months. Request on booking.	?		Meals for children aged 18months+ who occupy a seat.	Babies up to 7 days old require doctors certificate	united.com		With harness and FAA approved.	Medical certificate required in ninth month of pregnancy (cert must be dated within 24-72 hours prior to flight).
US Airways	Seats can be prebooked	Yes - buggy or carseat							usairways.com		FAA approved - with solid back and seat, restraint straps, label indicating suitability for use on aircraft.	Can fly up to 39 wks, or later with doctors certificate
Virgin Atlantic Airways	Seats can be prebooked	Yes - buggy or carseat		For babies up to 12months. 3 types depending on aircraft. Call contact centre for availability	1 bag up to 23kg	1 bag up to 6kg	Childrens menu available to pre-order	7 days	virgin-atlantic.com	Crew will heat milk on board. Backpack given to children, Seat back TV entertainment includes parental block facility	Provided by Virgin for newborns up to 20kg and max height 100cm (when you purchase a separate seat for an infant)	Can fly up to 28 wks for all pregnancies. Up to 36 wks and 32 wks with doctors certificate for uncomplicated single and multiple pregnancies respectively and booking (http://www. virgin- atlantic.com /en/gb/cust omerrelatio ns/contact_ us/phone.js p)

Wizz Air	Can be purchase d	Yes	As special baggage for a fee	Not available	None	None			wizzair.com			